WHEN I WAS A CHILD WE KEPT ROCK POOL CREATURES IN A PLASTIC TUB BEHIND THE HOUSE DAD BUILT. THE WATER WAS SUPPOSED TO BE CHANGED TWICE A DAY ON THE INCOMING TIDE.

Kimmy was hit by a car. She was on many life-support machines. I was on the (friends) team.

Even in such a state, she was the most beautiful.

Every day I read "winnie-the-Pooh" to her, for months.

She woke up eventually, later that year. She was smiling ... but she was someone new.

DISCLAIMER - THAT WAS 32 YRS AGO
I'M GRANDMOTHER TO HER 3 CHILDREN NOW,

"ED, JR. AND EDGAR RIII GET JEAN BACK INTO BED"

IT'S A SATURDAY AFTERNOON IN AUGUST 2000. I JUST MOVED A LARGE BOOKCASE IN MY HOME WHEN MY FATHER CALLS.

MOM IS VERY SICK WITH CANCER! SHE'S LAYING IN THE UPSTAIRS HALLWAY; TOO WEAK TO GET UP.

WE GET THE SHEET UNDER MOM AND START TO LIFT HER.

OF COURSE IF EITHER OF US HAD BEEN THINKING, WE WOULD HAVE CALLED 911 EMERGENCY!

I LOOK INTO MY FATHER'S EYES AND I CAN SEE TERROR. I KNOW HE HAS A BAD BACK AND IS ABOUT TO DROP HIS END OF THE SHEET!

...AS I LIFT MY MOTHER, I START TO FEEL MY OWN BACK GIVING OUT. I'M STRUGGLING TO RAISE HER ANOTHER INCH...

I MAKE A SPLIT SECOND DECISION - I GRAB DAD'S END OF THE SHEET AND FALL TO MY KNEES!

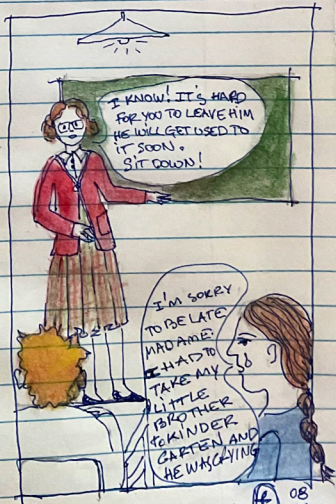

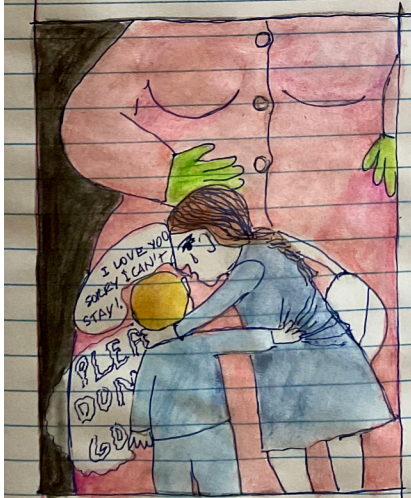

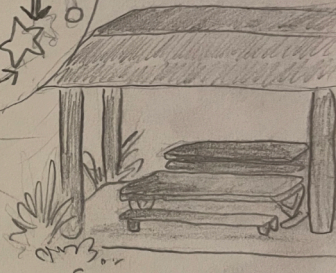

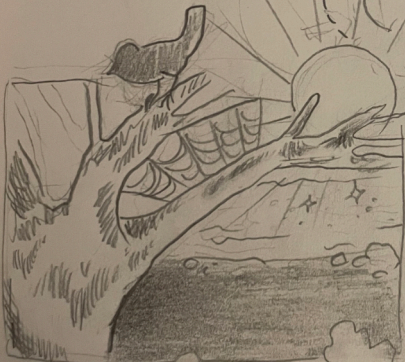

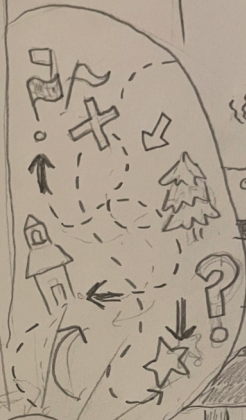

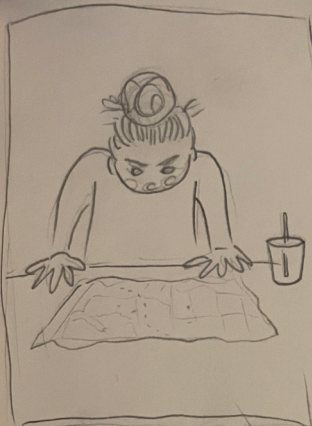

MY MOTHER IS LOOKING AT ME. I CAN'T SHOW THE TERROR IN MY EYES. I CAN ONLY PRAY SILENTLY...

PLEASE GOD, DON'T LET ME DROP MY MOTHER!
